About the Alexandra Munn Scholarships

Alexandra Munn has been a teacher and leader in Alberta's musical community for over 60 years and is a member of Edmonton's Cultural Hall of Fame. She has been a member of the Calgary Philharmonic and the Edmonton Symphony Orchestras, a Musical Director at the Banff Centre, a Professor at the University of Alberta, and a Director of the Da Camera Singers, the Edmonton Opera Chorus and the Richard Eaton Singers. She continues to teach at the Alberta College Conservatory of Music at Grant MacEwan University.

After many years of service to the Winspear Foundation as a grants panel member, the Winspear Foundation established the Alexandra Munn Scholarship Fund at Edmonton Community Foundation to honour her and to support the arts in greater Edmonton through support of students demonstrating financial need and outstanding talent in classical music performance (vocal and/or instrumental).

In 2011, one scholarship of $1,500 was awarded, but size and number of awards may vary.

Criteria

Applicants must:

- ✓ be permanent residents or citizens of Canada;
- ✓ be residents of the greater Edmonton area or be studying with a teacher in the greater Edmonton area;
- ✓ be between the ages of 11 and 15 (inclusive) on the application deadline;
- ✓ be pursuing classical music study;
- ✓ have outstanding talent in classical music performance (vocal and/or instrumental); and
- ✓ be experiencing financial need which would restrict their ability to pursue classical music study.

Deadline

The application deadline is January 15 of each year. All applications must be received by Edmonton Community Foundation by the deadline. If January 15 falls on a weekend, applications will be accepted until 4:30pm on the following business day.

Documentation

Applicants must provide:

- ✓ the completed application form (pages 4 to 5); and
- ✓ a signed & dated reference letter from a music teacher or music organization.

Do not staple your documents together; use paper clips instead. Incomplete applications will not be considered.

Application Process and Performance

Applications may be submitted in person, mailed, or sent by courier. Forward documentation to:

Edmonton Community Foundation
9910 - 103 Street NW
Edmonton AB T5K 2V7

Applications will be reviewed based on written submissions. Applicants who meet criteria will be invited to participate in an interview and performance at a time and venue to be announced. Performances should be of a maximum duration of 20 minutes and include repertoire from three different musical styles.

Payment of Awards

Awards are intended to assist recipients with costs related to study of classical music. Payment will be made to the student or on the student's behalf, as best suited to the recipient's situation. Recipients may be asked to provide receipts to demonstrate the award was allocated as intended by the awards panel.

Note that before payment can be made, the recipient must have a valid Social Insurance Number.

Alexandra Munn Scholarship
